Priced below KBB Fair Purchase Price! The vehicle that moves your family in comfort and safety. It has Navigation, Sunroof, and Entertainment to keep the family quiet while you get to your destination. Boxy, useful, and straightforward, the Suburban continues to perform its duties for American families like it has ever since its debut in 1935. With a 355-hp 5.3-liter V-8 and a six-speed automatic transmission, it has enough muscle to tow up to 8300 pounds while the optional four-wheel drive delivers all-road confidence. With seating for up to nine and vast storage space with the rear seats up or down, the Suburban is perfect for large families who need to haul their gear to distant locales. While rivals from Chevrolet the Tahoe and Suburban have higher starting prices than the Expedition, both come loaded with standard features that you'll have to pay extra for, like a touch-screen infotainment system, or that aren't even available in the Expedition, like smartphone connectivity via Apple CarPlay and Android Auto. Both competitors are also available with lane keep assist, forward collision warning, and a 4G LTE Wi-Fi hot spot features you can't get in the Expedition. As seasoned Suburban-philes know, most traffic yields in the presence of Chevrolet's largest SUV, leaving a clear berth that it might not for, say, a minivan. The electric power-assisted steering is a light touch at any speed, and at 3.4 turns lock-to-lock makes maneuvering about as pain-free as possible. All prices don't include tax, title, license, and $179.81 documentation fee. Must live in select market to qualify for Select Market Cash. $1,000 - General Motors Consumer Cash Program. Exp. 07/31/2019, $1,000 - GM My Rewards (Goodwill/Customer Appreciation) Program. Exp. 09/03/2019
