Comments:

Go off-map with the 2019 Nissan Frontier. There's a Frontier for every job, with 3 cab options to choose from – king cab, crew cab and crew cab long bed. Ideal for securing your cargo, the utili-track channel system consists of five channels – four running the length of the pickup bed and one running its width – plus four heavy-duty cleats that let you position stable tie-down points practically anywhere. The available streamlined, tubular roof rack can carry up to 125 lbs. and is shaped to reduce wind resistance. The Frontier's cabin treats you like a VIP, offering a long list of available features such as a power driver's seat, heated front seats, cruise control, auto-on/off headlights and more. Whether you are towing the weekend toys or carrying out the big jobs, there's an engine to power through your day, from the 2.5L 4-cylinder engine to the 4.0L V6 engine. Both are complemented by either a 6-speed manual transmission or automatic transmission with manual shift mode and 4X4 off-road capability. It also has a range of available features and advanced technology, including active brake unlimited slip, selectable drive modes, and more. Its tough, high-tensile-steel ladder chassis can handle up to 1,460 lbs. of cargo, and the available spray-on protective bedliner means you won't need to worry about tossing it in gently, not to mention it can tow up to 6,710 lbs. The Frontier offers a range of convenient including navigation, mobile app access, available 5.8in color touchscreen, smartphone integration, USB ports, premium audio system and Bluetooth integration. You'll also find a comprehensive suite of safety features such as rearview monitor, auto-dimming rearview mirror, vehicle dynamic control and more.
